EU Diplomacy Papers

Working Paper series of the EU International Relations and Diplomacy Studies Department at the College of Europe

Purpose:

The working paper series EU Diplomacy Papers offers a platform for academic and policy-oriented discussions of the European Union's external relations in a broad and interdisciplinary sense as well as of external aspects of the EU's internal policies.

The series aims at providing scholars and practitioners in the field of EU diplomacy with an opportunity to publish their work rapidly and to make their papers available worldwide and free of charge through electronic publication on the frequently visited College of Europe website.

Submissions:

Submissions from the Department's visiting professors and staff are particularly welcome, but the series is also open to external contributors and excellent student papers. Contributions may be submitted in English or French. The copyright remains with the authors.

Each paper will be lightly and anonymously reviewed by College faculty or an external referee. On the basis of this review, the editorial team decides on publication. Authors may be invited to re-submit a version taking into account recommended modifications.

Authors' Instructions:

Contributions must be submitted in Word format to sieglinde.gstoehl@coleurope.eu. The papers should normally be around 8.000 words in length with an abstract of about 150 words and a brief biographical note on the author(s).

Authors are kindly asked to use 1.5 line-spacing, 11 point Century Gothic font (10 point for footnotes), consecutive page numbering and justified margins. Headings must be printed in bold (12 point) and subheadings in italics (11 point). Either UK or US spelling may be used but must be consistent throughout the text. References may be either in Harvard style or footnotes, and the bibliography should preferably be formatted according to the following examples:
